

Launching Your Dreams Ceremony

An Invitation for you

Ocean spray from winter surf along the coastline north of Hana, among the craggy black lava rocks surrounding Pailoa Bay on East Maui.

There is magic in this place.

The Birth Canal, a long, lava tube extending from the black sand beach at Pailoa Bay in Wai'anapanapa State Park on east Maui, is an incredible vortex for speaking our dreams, singing the tones, breathing the notes, dancing and moving and birthing them into REALITY ... blessed by the amazing MANA, or power of Divine Feminine and Mother Maui !!!

"From the past 20+ years of experience with planting my dreams and the dreams of others here, each person has experienced some form of unexpected, even miraculous, results in their life ... often far exceeding the scope of the dream they planted ... and/or was blessed with the means and opportunity to travel to Maui and be in the Birth Canal vortex for themselves."

- Linaka Joy

Each year those willing to play will send in digital files of words or images
that symbolize their Dream

In some cases,
they deliver a small symbol,
a natural object like a stone or shell.

Your dream symbol is something you are willing to release,
to be replaced by the arrival of your Dreams.

Pailoa Bay near sunrise.

The Dragon's Head on the left, black sand beach in the center, and the Dragon's Tail on the right.

Some say the entire bay is protected with the shapes of dragons within the black lava rock.

The Black Sand Beach along Pailoa Bay
in Wai'anapanapa State Park

Approaching the lava tube, called the Birth Canal ... the land entrance from the black sand beach

"Seeing the light
as you pierce the dark unknown, entering the Birth Canal ..."

The ocean entrance illuminated by the full light of a beautiful, tropical paradise day.

Her dancing waves and turquoise waters.

Place a symbol for a Dream to be Launched

As the dancing, toning, singing, DREAMING of this Launching Ceremony calls out, the waves come in to play.

Waves of many sizes
washing in with power and beauty
... reaching for the Dream symbols.

Then ... washing out once again into Mana Wai, the Great Water ... carrying them out to the horizon,
into the realm of Spirit,
to the EAST in the direction of Illumination.

As the wave recedes,
the gift that is left - the feeling of

"And so it is"

Ma (in)

Ha (breath)

Alo (presence, front, face)

Mahalo

May we Meet in Divine Breath

The proper end to any Ceremony or Blessing ...

Gratitude, Thank you
Aloha. Mahalo. Amakua.
